

Welcome to the South Washington County Food Pantry!

As of July 1, 2015, the guidelines for receiving food from this pantry have changed. We will provide food for anyone living in our primary service area of South Washington County, Maryland who meets ONE of the following criteria:

- Have a food bank card from the Community Action County (CAC)
- Have an unemployment check stub dated within 30 days
- Have a letter from a company that laid off the client within 30 days
- Have proof of energy assistance
- Have proof of receiving food stamps
- Have proof that children receive free or reduced school lunches
- Have proof of any other government assistance program

OR

Possess a letter on church letterhead from the pastor of any church that supports the South Washington County Food Pantry or a member of the South Washington County Ministerium. The letter should include the frequency of visits allowed and the time period that the person may receive food.

Please have the necessary paperwork with you at each visit.

Thank you,

Board of Directors

South Washington County Food Pantry

www.southcountyfoodpantry.org